

Home

Coming home – and it feels like „come around“
I am tired but – I would love to come along Tell me dear – what has jangled you today And what you're willing to do in the night to make me stay?

I'll have a look – at the earth and a point of a view I'll take my photographs – and I'll print it to give them to you I paid a price – that was cheap and expensive at once But I'm sure that you've done – what it had to be done.

But it felt like home – as you chucked me out
your door
Though it hurts me now – I am sure that it will hurt forevermore.

Now have a look – what I left, what you're leaving behind A true story of love – a true story of mine Who will wait – for a coward who's fleeing the days
For a man full of doubts, full of questions, full of rage?

But it felt like home – as you chucked me out
your door

Though it hurts me now – I am sure that it will hurt forevermore.
And it's leading me back – far away from this place
That I once called home – That I once called a lifetime longing home

I was not supposed to leave in spring
I was not supposed to leave in wintertime
I was not supposed to leave in spring
Though it hurts me know I can't deny

What I really feel

What I really feel – it's one year ago It's one year ago – never understood.
What I really see – it lasts for a year
It lasts for a year- never understood.

What I really do – has nothing to do Has nothing to do – What I really feel.

I don't know the trouble and I don't see a light.
And I'm sure I'm afraid of what's going on inside.
But believe me, believe me, be sure, that I'm sure
I will love no one else the way I've loved you before.

Tell me what you feel – what you're eyes are looking for

What you'd love to adore – tell me what you feel I don't want to know – what's happened before I do adore – what I know 'bout you.

Refrain

What I really know – it's one year ago It's one year ago – and I still love you.

I don't care about the trouble, I don't care about the light
I don't care if there're shadows, I don't care when we fight
I'll wait for you for a lifetime, cause I'm sure I will love no one else the way I've loved you
before

Against the World

You and me against the world – never know where to start
You and me against all rules – never know when to stop.
You and me against the world – never know when to come
You and me against all odds – still not sure, if we've won.

We go down to the river, facing the sun Ashamed of ourselves from the moment we've gone.

Watching the stars, that will fall from the sky Rain touches our skin, like the tears, that we've cried.

You and me against the world – how long will it last
You and me against all sins – we've made it too fast.

You and me against the world – who will tell, that's too late
Do you feel the coming tide – Are we knowing our fate?

We go down to the river, facing the sun Ashamed of ourselves from the moment we've
gone.
Watching the stars, that will fall from the sky Rain touches our skin, like the tears, that we've cried.

And we're dancing till midnight, we dance till Beltane
Our fate does not matter, neither our shame.
They're lighting the bonfires to welcome the spring
We dance till the moment a new world begins.

Kill me

It's a simple but a difficult connection Like the shining and the dying of the light

I believe we do love our affection We'll recognize it in another night.

As a simple spirit I believe in heaven
As a simple mind I do believe in love
To live my life in freedom's the obsession
I never came up with another thought
I never came up with another thought.

You kill me
For what I was to you
You kill me
But you'll be dying, too.

I've been to many cultures, lands and countries
I sometimes looked for someone in the past I always took the roads that lay in front of me I was neither the first nor the last

Meaning of Lovesongs

The one told me I should be more than thankful
The other had insisted on his know how A friend of mine just said to me how blameful
It is to use the public for my show
But I'm sorry I have to admit

It's always hard to clarify the plainness Explaining words to someone who is deaf Don't ever think this whole thing is painless Stranded in the corner to be left

But I'm sorry I have to admit - But I'm sorry I have to admit

I do say in songs what I can't in your ear
Don't you know that's the meaning of a love
song my dear
I can't really manage what you think and believe
But I know if I could I did not have to leave

Unlike the others I don't play it simple Unlike the others I just play the fool Outside our old agreement I'm the sinful
By playing the old game by my own rules
But I'm sorry I have to admit - But I'm sorry I have to admit

I do say in songs what I can't in your ear
Don't you know that's the meaning of a love
song my dear
I can't really manage what you think and
believe
But I know if I could I did not have to leave

I'd love to start the whole thing with a reason I'd love to carry on with our lives
A comfortable beginning for our seasons You know there's lot of grey 'tween black and white

Let's bury all our arguments in autumn

Let's bury all our arguments in spring A summer's day should be spend down by the river
Let's focus on the things we'll soon begin Than I'm sure that we don't have to quit
I'm sure that we don't have to quit
I'm sure that we don't have to quit
I'm sure that we don't have to quit

Home Alone

Have you ever tried a better story that you used to tell?
I'm sick of hearing words of people I don't really know so well.
It's not my mother's tongue, I will admit it, but
it's neither yours
I'd really like the thought of only sitting here till three or four.

But when you are the one who lives so far away
and anyhow
Untouchable in every sense in any sense and anyhow.
The Future is defined for us, the sea will wait do you agree?
Together we could spend a day
Together we're fading away.

It was home
It was home
Home.

Home alone. Home alone.

Master spend a little more, the monster eats the time again.
I won't forget the time we spend in Exeter when spring began.
You don't forget me, hope you can. A good thing is not real enough.
In summer, autumn, winter and in spring we loved and hated so much.

But when you are the one who lives so far away
and anyhow
Untouchable in every sense in any sense and
anyhow.
The Future is defined for us, the sea will wait do
you agree?
Together we go our ways
Together we're fading away.

It was home
It was home
Home.
Home alone. Home alone.

It's not my mother's tongue, I will admit it, but
it's neither yours
I'd really like the thought of only sitting here till
three or four.
I've made mistakes, you've made them, too.
You've got your life and I got mine and I don't understand the words you're going to tell me every time.

Fool on the Moon

While I'm waiting for you I See the sun going down.
While I'm gazing the moon, I hear your voice in that sound.
What can I do to make the best of our ground?
You're Not alone but you don't know what you've found.

You don't have to worry When you got friends by your side.
Still I'm gazing the Moon while it cares for the tide.
I served thousands of monsters was always a lover
Sick of the fear That I wear like a cover.

As you showed up the Last time I knew that you're gone.
Cause you can't stand the difference of what is love and what's wrong.
It's simple as that I'm the fool on the moon.
Still gazing it's light while I'm waiting for you.

I Don't Mind

Oh, what a beautiful day
So many discissions to make
I don't think I'm gonna stay

I turn around and let all the Rush flow away.

Still got a phone call to make.
Heading south heading west, run away.
Got enough for today.
Poisoned by so many enemies facing my way.

I don't mind, if it's wrong – I don't mind, if the stories I'm telling are songs
I 'm going strong – I just keep playing while you come along.

Once you made a mistake
I tried to stay anyway.
Forgave all the words that you said
I am still guilty for ruining all of our way

I don't mind, if it's wrong – I don't mind, if the
stories I'm telling are songs
I 'm going strong – I just keep playing while you come along.

Do you remember the tale?
Of Jonah who's trapped inside the whale.
As you, he was always afraid You blame your mother and father for what you failed to make

Answers

All you asked for is a little time alone – All I asked for is a drink.

Oh the tale starts with a different kind of hope – The way the storytellers should begin.

Living in a world of love and hate makes weaker minds – the memories of yesterdays are gone.
Questions must be asked answers must be false
– the more we know the less we love

Do you think I know? Do you think I know?

Life could be so easy but you never figured out – how to handle problems, as you were adult.
There's too many choices that are waiting to be done – the more you wait the more you have to run.

Isn't it a pity that the world has changed us all – how dare you that you choose to be alone?
Someday you'll meet the friends you always give a call – finally a place that you call home.

Do you think I know? Do you think I know?
Do you think I know? Do you think I know?
Do you think I know? Do you think I know?
Do you think I know? Do you think I know?
No, no, no! No, no, no!
No, no, no! No, no, no!

All you asked for is little time alone – all I asked for is a friend

Oh the tale ends with a different kind of hope –
The way the storytellers shouldn't end.

Bloody Beginners

It is never too late for a walk at the river
When the moon and the stars slowly show us our way.
Your hand in my pocket you whisper and shiver While I know, it could be the first and the last of our days.

The blankets of trust were not wear by the sinners
The mirrors of dust will be gone in the morn.
We surely will kiss like bloody beginners
The reason awaited with longing will catch us at dawn.

Why should I believe in us, why should I waste
my time?
Why should I believe the things that you said?
You asked my what's going on, I said, I love you too
Finally, it makes no sense to stay.
Interlude:

Why should I believe in us, why should I waste
my time?
Why should I believe the things that you said?
You asked my what's going on, I said, I love you
too
Finally, it makes no sense to stay.

Now you hold back your tears like you did for so many While I know, it should end here so this is goodbye.
I do believe we'll meet others, you know, there are plenty
Your head on my chest, you and me, surrounded by light.

The Way I loved before

The sun reminds me of a time
Where all my trouble's really mine.
My mind keeps playing on the shore.
Oh, I wish I loved the way I loved before.

My eye's keep running round my head.
It's difficult for me today to leave the bed.
It shook my heart down to the core.
Oh, I wish I loved the way I loved before.

Summer's gone – winter comes
Together we're alone but hoped for more.
Autumn sings it's silly songs
And I wish I loved the way I loved before.

I drive alone I drive too fast.
Your thoughts are in my head, we're worlds apart.
I'll never change how I adore
And I wish I loved the way I loved before.

Summer's gone – winter comes
Together we're alone but hoped for more.

Autumn sings it's silly songs
And I wish I loved the way I loved before.
